You drive your car into a parking spot in the underground parking garage. From here, a glass wall elevator or a secured staircase leads you up to a spacious, well-lit, and airy hallway on the third floor. Here, you enter this spacious apartment through double doors and will immediately be impressed by the vastness of the living room and the wonderful ocean views ahead. On the right side of the open plan living room, you will find a modern European kitchen with built-in appliances and a breakfast bar. The living area further boasts room for a large dining set and a lounge area with a TV. Sliding doors between the living area and the balcony open up almost the entire wall so that inside and outside living blend into one. The balcony is covered to protect you from the sun and weather elements and it is a great place to relax, watch the sunset or meet up with friends. Due to its large size, this balcony is also a great entertainment area! Near the front door, the entrance is a hallway with room for storage and a large guest lavatory. Behind the kitchen is a spacious scullery with even more sto
