Fully Off-Grid Luxury at the Top of the Hills | CBI Approved Perched at the highest elevation within Paradise Hills, the Echo Ridge Skyline Collection introduces it's first 11–12 residences released in this visionary west coast development. Positioned deliberately at the crest of the ridge, these homes offer immediate privacy, uninterrupted sunset views, and a peaceful living environment while future phases of the community are developed below. This top-down release strategy ensures owners enjoy the experience of a completed hillside enclave from day one. Lots 1-4 - Turn Key ready by August 2026 Lots 5-11 - Turn Key Ready by January 2027 Echo Ridge is not simply eco-conscious — it is engineered for complete independence. Each Skyline residence is designed to operate entirely off the public utility grid, delivering sustainable, resilient living without compromising comfort or luxury. Features include: Integrated solar energy systems designed to exceed daily consumption Advanced battery storage for seamless 24/7 performance Rainwater harvesting with substantial on-site water storage Smart h
