A Sanctuary of Nature and Tradition Nestled along the road to Tela, in the charming village of Aldea El Aguacate, lies a hidden gem: a magnificent 12.5-manzana hacienda that blends the beauty of the countryside with the comfort of a well-equipped estate. Here, time slows down, allowing you to embrace the serenity of rural life without sacrificing modern conveniences. At the heart of the hacienda stands a cozy three-bedroom house, featuring a warm living room and a kitchen ready for preparing traditional meals. But what truly sets this property apart is its vast potential and extensive facilities: stables, chicken coops, pig pens, and a sprawling pasture, ideal for raising animals and agricultural production. Water is never a concern, thanks to a storage tank, and power is always available with a backup generator ensuring the estate’s continuous operation. For wildlife enthusiasts, the hacienda offers a special habitat for macaws and kennels designed for pets or working dogs. And like any estate rich in history and tradition, it boasts a gazebo and a traditional oven, perfect for hosting family gathering
