An Amazing Jungle Resort, nature-based, in the heart of the Belizean Jungle. Guests can canoe, kayak or tube the Majestic Macal River, climb atop ancient Mayan Ruins, wade through the Mayan underworlds, or hike the onsite jungle trails! These hands-on experiences, paired with mouth watering cuisine will lead to an unforgettable Belize experience. What makes this particular resort unique is its location on the Macal River and its views of the river. Starting at one end of the property is the "Big Eddie", a 40 to 50 feet deep area of water that was very important to the loggers back in the 1800s. The Eddie appears on maps and is surrounded by a 200-foot cliff. Further upriver, the Macal straightens out for nearly  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile. The Dining Room sits on a point that overlooks the straight portion of the river. That view from the Dining Room is their signature photo! There are also numerous accesses to the river, all made very easy to navigate with easy switchbacks and paved walkways with steps and railings. The entire resort is pretty much self-sufficient. Generating their own electricity and water as well as having their
