THE LEGACY OF ALTOS DEL GOLF An Exceptional Private Garden Estate in Panama City There are places in a city that transcend their location. Altos del Golf is one of them. For generations, this distinguished residential enclave has represented one of the most enduring expressions of private living in Panama City. Its identity was shaped during an era when the city's most exclusive residences were conceived on expansive grounds, surrounded by mature gardens and designed to accommodate both intimate family life and formal entertaining. The neighborhood became associated with prominent Panamanian families, senior public figures, business leaders, and members of the international diplomatic community. Today, Altos del Golf continues to be defined by its privacy, expansive gardens, distinctive architecture, and exceptional sense of space — qualities that are increasingly rare in a capital city undergoing constant growth. Altos del Golf offers an exceptional balance between residential tranquility and urban connectivity. Its low-density character, mature vegetation, and generous properties cre
