A Bali-Modern Retreat in the Hills of Atenas — Lomas Del Paraiso Tranquility, Privacy, and Security — Set Above It All Tucked into the private gated community of Lomas Del Paraiso, this newly completed estate delivers exactly what so many buyers come to Atenas searching for: mountain views, total privacy, and a natural setting that feels a world away — while still being just minutes from town. Perched on the hillside with sweeping views over the Central Valley's forested ridgelines, the property is surrounded by mature trees and jungle greenery, giving it the feel of a private sanctuary rather than a neighborhood lot. Gated community access and a quiet, low-traffic setting make this an especially easy choice for retirees, remote workers, or anyone looking for a secure home base in Costa Rica. Completed this year, the home was designed with a distinct Bali-modern sensibility — clean architectural lines, deep pyramid-hipped roofs in warm cedar shake, dark volcanic stone accents, and walls of black-framed glass that dissolve the line between indoors and out. Every major room opens toward t
