Casa Samba stands as one of Manuel Antonio's most iconic and successful luxury vacation rental properties. This stunning 5-bedroom, 6-bathroom residence combines exquisite tropical Balinese design with breathtaking jungle views, offering an unforgettable experience for every guest. The entrance level greets visitors with a beautifully renovated kitchen and dining area that overlooks the pool and the National Park. This air-conditioned space flows seamlessly onto a spacious outdoor deck, featuring both covered and open areas perfect for soaking in the views and observing the daily wildlife visits. Off the covered terrace are two bedrooms: one with two full beds and another, the Canopy Suite, with a king-sized bed nestled in the jungle canopy. The master bedroom, located one level up, serves as a luxurious retreat with its king-sized bed, a beautifully designed bathroom with a private jacuzzi tub, and custom glazed earthenware sinks. The home's distinctive feature is its open-air living and gaming area, suspended at canopy level. This space offers unparalleled views, refreshing breezes, and an authentic Costa Ric
